Dear friend Dave:

First, I wish to acknowledge receipt of the case of tuna fish which you were so kind to send me and to thank you in behalf of Alice and the children for your usual thoughtfulness during this Christmas Season.

The shipment was delivered in good order and we know that the product will be equally as tasty here in New York as it was in the Northwest area of our country where it was packed, so ably and so efficiently. Again, many thanks to you, Dave, and our sincere good wishes that the Christmas of Dorothy, Dave Jr., and yourself was a joyous and happy one and that the New Year will bring you all that your hearts desire.

In talking about the New Year, it offers a great challenge and I know that under your sound leadership, the Teamsters' Union will grow and flourish. The year 1955 was a memorable one in many ways and yet was one that was fraught with problems that will not make themselves felt until the months that lie ahead. Yours is no easy task; indeed, it is a most difficult one and one which will tax not only your abilities but your strength and vigor to the very limit. To that end we will be thinking of you during 1956 and asking Him to guide you and give you the wisdom, strength, energy and vigor to carry on as successfully in the future as you have in the past.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir and Brother:

We are approaching the beginning of a New Year and, before the old year is spent, I pause to look in retrospect on our record for the year--to our successes and failures and to evaluate what has gone during these past twelve months.

The sum total is one of progress in all fields and it is for this that I want to thank you, as one of my associates, for the part that you have played in the cooperation and good will that I have received, without which I could not possibly carry on as President of this organization. It is my earnest hope that I may be worthy of your continued loyalty and support in time to come.

With appreciation of your friendship and with sincere gratitude, I am, with best wishes to you and yours for a Bountiful New Year,
